This is my favorite season! Fond memories of my mother cooking a delicious meal for our family. The house filled with laughter, good food, great company and lots of leftovers to enjoy over the next few days. That is, if my oldest brother didn't get to it first.

I miss those days. Everyone is gone now, but I am thankful I am blessed to have formed new traditions with my own son and daughter.

During this season, there are many people we will encounter who have no food to eat, and no place to sleep. OVL Foundation USA will not let this season go by and not intentionally try to make someone less fortunate than ourselves feel our love and compassion, as we share hope and joy.

So glad we will have a physical presence in the community, as we travel to the unhoused encampments.

We will provide bags of essential items, and prayer for those who desire it.

Please help us help those who need a helping hand.
